DISCOVERIES

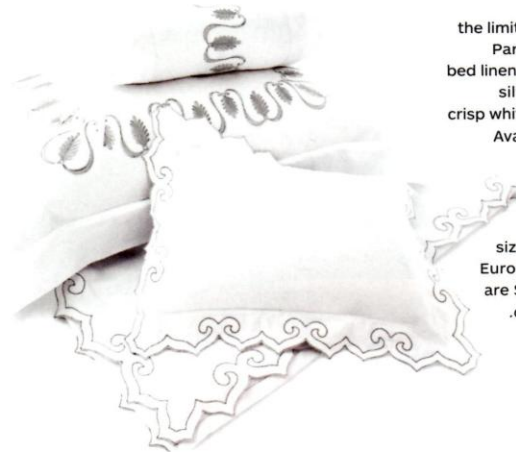

Michael Devine's Victoria linen is embellished with a delicate rendering of the old world royal fern. The hand-printed textile comes in five standard shades (absinthe on ivory is shown) and can be ordered in custom colors; to the trade through Studio Four NYC. studiofournyc.com, 212-475-4414

Dransfield & Ross's Gemstones of the World collection, which takes inspiration from mineral-rich grottoes and other geological wonders, includes this vibrant malachite-patterned linen napkin and wood-and-faux-snakeskin place mat (pictured in green and palm, respectively). The 22"-sq. napkin and 15"-sq. place mat cost $45 apiece. Also shown is the natural-bamboo napkin ring, which is priced at $12. dransfieldandross.com, 212-741-7278

Barbara Barry's outdoor collection for McGuire Furniture brings a modern, tailored look to any alfresco space. The Key dining chair, crafted of basket-weave resin on a powdered-aluminum frame, is made in a driftwood finish; cushions are available in sailcloth shell (shown) and heather gray or c.o.m. The chair measures 33" h. x 23.5" w. x 25.5" d. and starts at $1,350. mcguirefurniture.com, 800-662-4847

New from Pratesi, the limited-edition Beyond Paradise collection of bed linens features intricate silver embroidery on crisp white Egyptian cotton. Available in, from top, the lyrical Paolina or scalloped Marrakesh designs, a queen-size set costs $5,700; European pillow shams are $990 each. pratesi.com, 212-288-2315

The Poula console, part of designer William Yeoward's nine-piece Hall collection, comprises a honeycomb-like bronzed-metal base crowned with a Portoro-marble (shown) or glass top; it stands 32" h. x 54" w. x 16" d. and is available to the trade. yeowardfurnitureusa.com, 336-899-1319
