A Tom Wesselmann wall sculpture presides over the master suite, whose bed and nightstands were custom designed by John Meeks; the bedding is by Pratesi, the Lucite nesting tables are by Plexi-Craft, the metallic duffel is an artwork by Sylvie Fleury, and the carpet is by Stark. Opposite: The study is furnished with an Art Deco desk from Karl Kemp Antiques, a 1960s cocktail table from Bernd Goeckler Antiques, and a suite of Rose Tarlow Melrose House chairs clad in an Edelman leather; a Tang-dynasty horse stands in the window, and the skull is by Damien Hirst.
